Dear Mr. Friedman,

On behalf of Publications International, Ltd. I'd like to welcome you as a puzzle contributor for our Brain Games publication series (Project #1392700: Puzzle Acquisitions). We are delighted to have you as part of our team! This letter will review the project and detail the terms of our agreement. A contract will follow shortly.

Our Brain Games series includes magazines (96 pages, 5 3/8 x 8 1/4, two-color) and books (192 pages, 7 3/8 x 9 1/8, two-color) designed to stimulate and engage mature readers who wish to keep supple minds through brain exercises. The puzzles should have a positive tone. They can encompass a diverse range of subjects, but the clues and answers should have a timeless quality, avoiding colloquial terms and region-specific expressions. Subject matter should definitely be geared to adults.

Usage Summary

Per our agreement, you will provide us with 20 “Opposite” puzzles, and based on necessity, additional puzzles, possibly different puzzle types, may be ordered. Incorporating a variety of styles and skill levels (Attachment B), final amount to be determined and deadlines to be assigned throughout 2009. These puzzles will be used in forthcoming editions of Brain Games books and magazines at the discretion of Publications International, Ltd. Publications International, Ltd. will own all rights to these puzzles.

Payment and Credits

You will be paid $35.00 per puzzle within 45 days of receipt of the signed contract and acceptance of puzzles by our editorial staff. You will be name-credited as “Erich Friedman” within the publication, and will receive two (2) complimentary copies upon publication.

Due Dates and Delivery

Please submit the puzzles via email to my attention at erice@pubint.com on a feed (puzzles are sent to me as they are completed) with the final due date of Monday August 10, 2009.

If you have questions regarding this agreement, please call me at (847) 583-4422 or email me at erice@pubint.com. Thank you very much again – your contributions to our publication are very much appreciated!

Best wishes,

Emily Rice
Associate Acquisitions Editor
